MONTHLY COMMENTARY

In May, the Azimut Global Sukuk Fund (the Fund) was down by 0.1% (1.89% YTD) versus the Dow Jones Sukuk Price Return Index down by 0.72% (1.03% YTD). May proved to be a down month for financial markets. A series of negative headlines surrounding US regional banks as well as unclear outcome of US debt ceiling negotiations led to uncertain investment outlook. Investors also began to brace for extended Federal Reserve hawkishness as economic data continued to indicate modest growth with inflation, while declining, still staying above Federal Reserve target. Global commodities were another segment of the market which traded poorly in May with oil prices in particular coming under pressure despite comment from OPEC officials to talk up the market. The exception to market underperformance in May was strong returns generated by US tech sector stocks as investors began to price in upside of artificial intelligence. As with other fixed income segments, Middle East (ME) credit (conventional and sukuk) posted negative returns in May with ME high yield bonds outperforming emerging market benchmark due to strong economic outlook for ME region. The fund's portfolio duration remains low and stable at 3.3 years (average maturity of 4.5 years) with cash and cash equivalents and ILM issues accounting for 2.5% of the NAV. The portfolio diversification stays at high levels (117 issues and the top 10 positions accounting for 26.7% of the total NAV) with an average rating of BBB-. The Fund's currency diversification (MYR, IDR, UAE, and GBP) is stable at 1.7% of NAV - which is below the self-imposed ceiling of 25%. The portfolio has 6.2% YTM (189 bps versus the equivalent maturity on the US-curve)

FUND OVERVIEW

KEY RISKS

Credit Risk: Risks associated with issuers of debt securities, even those with a very high rating, may not be able to make payments to investors, or the fear associated with this risk may result in a decrease in the value of their debt securities.

Emerging Market Risk: Risks associated with investing in emerging markets. Due to their political instability, the volatility of the exchange rate of their currencies, and the limited number of investment opportunities, the risk of these markets is greater than in countries considered as developed.

Interest Rate Risk: Risks that the value of fixed-income securities will vary inversely to interest rate fluctuations.

For full disclosures on all key risks, please refer to the PRIIPs Key Investor Document.
